

Friends in Christ,

When a man is approaching ordination, everyone asks what his hopes and dreams are for ministry. For me, I was excited to start life as a priest and excited that I had the opportunity on the horizon to visit the holy land within the first six months of being ordained! I was signed up to go in February of 2020, and then the world shut down. My hopes of having the Gospel come alive off the pages of scripture were cut short due to the pandemic. It is with renewed hope that I invite you to come with me and your fellow pilgrims, to see the sights of the Holy Land, and to experience the part of the world in which the Gospel was born. We will depart in the end of May, 2024 and are going to visit a number sites of religious significance. We will visit places like Cana (John 2), Sea of Galilee (Matt 4,14,15), Jerusalem, and more. Whether you will view the land of Christ for the first time or you have been before, I invite you to come with me to experience the graces contained in these holy sites.

In Christ,
Fr Dan Molochko
